

Eligibility Restrictions and Grant Terms:

- Must report back during the designated time frame with spending details.
- Be a charitable, nonprofit entity, not a private foundation with tax exempt status.
- Must fall within our pillars.
- Must be able to demonstrate that a majority, if not all, of Foundation funds will be used for direct services.
- To sectarian or religious organizations for religious purposes where the principal activity is for the benefit of their own members or adherents.
- Organizations that, in policy or practice, unfairly discriminate against race, ethnic origin, sex, creed, or religion.
- Fraternal organizations or civic organizations unless their programs are available to members of the community.
- Private or public foundations, endowments.
- Curriculum development or operational costs of public educational institutions or other tax-supported groups.
- Sponsorships including auctions, dinners, tickets, advertising, or annual fundraising events.
- Organizations acting on behalf of, but without the authority of, qualified tax-exempt organizations.
- administrative costs.
- indirect or overhead costs not directly related to implementation of a grant are not allowed.
- Loans, debt retirement, or operational deficits.
- To individuals unless under an approved educational scholarships program.
- For advertising or marketing costs.
- For political action or legislative advocacy groups or influencing elections.
- For travel expenses or trips.